Chill Winds Fail to Daunt Parade Spirit

Despite the forty-degree weather, twelve well-filled cars took part in the Homecoming Parade, Friday, February 19. Trophies were awarded by the queen candidates for the best-decorated participating cars.

The parade, led by Bill Burns, traveled a circuitous route down Natural Bridge and throughout the neighboring villages. The lively group returned an hour later, very cold, but looking forward to the Homecoming Game that evening.

Marsha McMahon and Bill Burns, co-ordinator of the Homecoming Parade, take a moment to rest while waiting for the parade participants to arrive.

Roses for the New Queen

Due largely to the efforts of Sharon Kral and Tom Dye, Room 108 took on the air of a "Tiger's Den" for the Homecoming Dance, Saturday, February 20. A tiger's head roughly ten feet tall drew attention to the queen's throne where at 9:45 the coronation ceremonies were held.

Entering first were the court pages, Robert and John Hodges, attired in small tiger suits. Next, the retiring queen, Miss Elaine Stamm, and her escort, Dave Wilson, co-captain of the basketball team, were presented. The queen candidates and their escorts followed.

When all of the candidates had taken their places, Master-of-Ceremonies Mike Mikulin, treasurer of the SA, revealed the queen's identity, Miss Jane Moore.
